

The Globisens Labdisc wins the Worlddidac Award for 2012!
FOR INNOVATION AND PEDAGOGIC VALUE

The Worlddidac Award is the most recognized international prize in the education sector. It is presented every two years to innovative and pedagogically valuable products with a high potential to improve learning or teaching.

The Labdisc and GlobiLab software was intensively evaluated by an international jury of education experts and educators for the period of an entire week, following which the product was presented to the 12 jurors by video conference.

The criteria of evaluation include overall quality, safety, eco-friendliness, pedagogic value, ease of use, aesthetics, handbook quality, degree of realism in software, multi-functionality, adaptability, design innovation, pedagogical innovation, technological innovation, degree of interactivity and performance/cost ratio.